Assistant Head of Year (Support Staff): Job Description

Grade: GH Scale 6 Points 14-16

Reports to: Head of Year

The job description below gives an insight into the tasks and responsibilities for the non-teaching post of Assistant Head of Year (Support Staff).

Main Responsibilities, Tasks and Duties:

To provide support and pastoral care to two Year Groups within the school. To report to Key Stage Pastoral Co-ordinator, Education Welfare Officer, Head of Year, and Assistant Head Teacher for the designated year group(s), in relation to student progress, behaviour, attendance and well-being. To liaise with both students and parent/carers where appropriate.

To accurately update and manage student data in an effective and timely manner, ensuring confidentiality is maintained and data is accessible to the relevant parties.

KEY TASKS

- To support the pastoral team, tutor or class teacher in providing and organising appropriate care and support for students' pastoral needs. This would range across many student matters, including behaviour, attendance, welfare, achievement and any safeguarding issues.
- To assist the Attendance Officer in monitoring and tracking daily absence and support intervention when required including phone calls to parents.
- To support the tutors/teachers in the management of students' attendance by registering and supporting students who are late, identifying students whose attendance is of concern and support in putting strategies in place to resolve those problems.
- To maintain the accuracy of student databases and student record files.
- To provide student tracking reports to Heads of Year including attendance and behaviour data.
- To ensure that important information is provided to members of staff ahead of meetings with parents/outside agencies e.g. attendance, behaviour logs etc.
- To support the Senior Leadership Team in the absence of other pastoral staff and to meet with the Head of Year on a regular basis as part of the support process.
- To provide administrative support to the Head of Year in all their responsibilities - organising Parents' Evenings, reports, detentions, Year group special events, rewards/certificates, etc.
- To support the Designated Safeguard Lead and senior staff with child protection issues if required.
- To attend, when appropriate, school/pastoral and year meetings to contribute to the discussions about individual students.
- To support in the supervision of the student areas at break and lunch times as required.
- To lead the procedures for corridor management during breaks, changeovers and any other unstructured school time. Ensuring students are 'Ready to Learn'.
- To support the "on call" system, delivered by the pastoral team and senior staff.
- To support the pastoral room/area if students require time away from the curriculum and a place to reflect.
- To support the restorative and reflective programmes with the school.
- To consistently support and reinforce the ethos of Gildredge House School, that is delivered by all members of staff.

- To make phone calls and/or meet student families to support and/or improve student welfare, attendance and behaviour
- To support additional needs plans by ensuring that information and interventions are logged and carried out.
- To accompany staff on school education visits and work under the direction of the trip organiser, if required.
- To support year group assemblies with the Senior Leadership Team and Head of Year.
- To support pre-admission visitors and/or meetings. This may lead on to supporting a student into a designated year group or class.
- To support Heads of Year and Phase Leader with behaviour logs, child protection logs/tasks, contacting home regarding sanctions/pastoral care, etc
- To take part in training activities offered by the School and County to further knowledge and improve performance.
- To carry out all duties in accordance with Gildredge House school policy.
- To carry out the above duties in accordance with the school's Equal Opportunities Policy.
- In the Secondary School you may be asked to rotate responsibilities with different year groups as required by the Senior Leadership Team e.g. Move from one year to another, if directed, at the end of an academic year.
- To carry out any reasonable task at the request of the Head Teacher.

Additional Duties and Involvement

The following duties and areas of Involvement are specific to this role within Gildredge House and are in addition to those listed above. It is accepted that these items are appropriate to the salary scale for this post.

General:

1. The post holder will be asked to carry out a number of tasks each day and will need to prioritise these tasks to ensure daily routines are consistently followed, and all deadlines are met.
2. The post holder will work predominately within an allocated Key Stage.
3. Working practices will include regular use of a computer including the use of Excel, Word, Outlook and a management information system.
4. Equal Opportunities - The post holder is required to carry out the duties in accordance with the school's Equal Opportunities policies.
5. Health and Safety - The post holder is required to carry out the duties in accordance with the school's Health and Safety policies and procedures.
6. All school staff have a responsibility to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people within the school.

General Expectations

To abide by and apply all school policies e.g. Behaviour and Exclusions, Health and Safety, Equal Opportunities and Data Protection etc.

To perform such other tasks as may reasonably be required by the line manager or by the Head Teacher.
