An insight into the role

Dear Applicant

As a school, we are delighted that you are considering applying for the post of Teacher of Science. We hope this pack is informative and useful but if you require any additional information or have questions, please contact careers@gildredgehouse.org.uk

CLOSING DATE: Friday 19th May 2023 9.00am
START DATE: Friday 01 September 2023
INTERVIEWS: Week commencing 22 May 2023
HOURS OF WORK: Full time

- Can you inspire young people through your own fascination with Science?
- Do you possess high emotional intelligence that builds lasting professional relationships?
- Are you a team player ready to tackle the educational challenges of the future?

If the answers to these questions is 'yes', then Gildredge House wants to hear from you.

We are looking to appoint an exceptional candidate to the position of Teacher of Science for our all-through free school. Teachers in the early stage of their career would benefit from the wealth of experience and talent amongst the teachers in Science, which is one of the outstanding departments of our school. ECTs are welcome to apply.

Our 'Good' Ofsted judgement (November 2018) is a strong foundation on which to build and develop the school. The challenge is to sustain and further improve through every aspect of Gildredge House as the school continues to develop.

As Teacher of Science you will join an outstanding team of inspirational teachers, where you will ensure that our students enjoy and achieve highly in their Science learning. You will be a Science specialist in the secondary phase. We ideally need a strong GCSE teacher as most of your teaching will be in Years 7 - 11. This is an exciting time to join our Outstanding Science Department, with opportunities for professional development ranging from KS2 transition with Year 6 to inspiring our students to choose Science studies at Sixth Form and at University.

Within the Science department, you will find a team who are dedicated to providing engaging, stimulating lessons to students of all abilities, and classrooms where rapport and relationships are given the highest priority. We plan with creativity and teach with enthusiasm, ensuring that every student reaches their full potential. We aim to help students develop resilience and confidence in the face of a challenging curriculum, not only to prepare them for demanding examinations but also to foster a lifelong love of science and the world around them.

Gildredge House offers:

- continuity of education for boys and girls aged 4+
- an expectation of high academic standards leading to Sixth Form studies
- strong discipline
- excellent pastoral care
- a range of extra-curricular activities
- parent and community involvement

Our school motto: 'Aspire'

Salary range: £28,000 rising to £43,685(Gildredge House Main Pay Scale points M1-UPS3, 2022-2023)

- d) to contribute to Department meetings, discussions and management systems necessary to coordinate the work of the Department and integrate this into the work of the school as a whole in seeking to achieve school aims and targets
- e) to promote safeguarding, student well-being and equal opportunities within the school and to seek to ensure the implementation of the school's equal opportunities policy in keeping with the Equality Act 2010

A classroom teacher's professional duties are deemed to include the following:

Teaching (having regard to the curriculum of the school):

- planning and preparing courses and lessons;
- developing teaching resources, particularly with regard to the differentiation for students of different abilities and the increased use of ICT;
- teaching the students assigned to the teacher (according to their educational needs) and setting and marking work to be carried out by the students in school or elsewhere;

- providing or contributing to oral and written assessments, reports and references relating to individual students and groups of students.
- implementing whole school academic policies.

Activities related to teaching

- promoting the general progress and well-being of individual students and of any class or group of students assigned to the teacher;
- providing guidance and advice to students on educational and social matters and on their further education and future careers, including information about sources of more expert advice on specific questions; making relevant records and reports;
- making records of, and reports on, the personal and social needs of students;
- communicating and consulting with the parents of students;
- communicating and co-operating with persons or bodies outside the school;
- attending and presenting reports at Governors' meetings if required;
- participating in meetings arranged for any of the purposes described above.

Review: further training and professional development

- reviewing methods of teaching and programmes of work; and
- participating in arrangements for further training and professional development.

Educational methods

- advising and co-operating with the Head Teacher and other teachers on the preparation and development of courses of study, teaching materials, teaching programmes, methods of teaching and assessment, and pastoral arrangements.

Discipline, health and safety

- maintaining good order and discipline among the students and safeguarding their health and safety both when they are authorised to be on the school premises and when they are engaged in authorised school activities elsewhere.

Staff meetings

- participating in meetings at the school which relate to the curriculum for the school or the administration or organisation of the school, including pastoral arrangements.

Covering for absent colleagues

- rarely supervising / teaching any students whose teacher is not available.

Public examinations

- participating in arrangements for (i) preparing students for public examinations and (ii) assessing students for the purposes of such examinations;
- recording and reporting such assessments; and
- participating in arrangements for students' presentation for, and supervision during, such examinations.

Whole School

- Most staff are responsible, as Form Tutors, for the academic progress and pastoral welfare of a small group of students.
- Most staff attend assemblies, register the attendance of students and supervise students, whether these duties are to be performed before, during or after school sessions.

- All teaching staff are expected to contribute to the extra-curricular life of the school by offering an activity or participating in the supervision of student preparation.
 - All staff are expected to participate in whole-school and out-of-school activities as reasonably required.

This job description will be reviewed annually and may be subject to amendment or modification at any time after consultation with the post holder. It is not a comprehensive statement of procedures and tasks, but sets out the main expectations of the school in relation to the post holder's professional responsibilities and duties, including the provision of high-quality teaching and learning and the safeguarding, well-being and care of students.

Elements of this job description and changes to it may be negotiated at the request of either the Head Teacher or the incumbent of the post, and it should be noted that the post-holder is expected to carry out such duties as may reasonably be required by the Head Teacher from time to time.
